EXTRA

Co-Creator & Creative Director / MAWLAH.EG

Cairo, Egypt

2019-Present

Mawlah is a clothing brand based in Egypt that was designed by my friend and I at the end of 2019. The brand was first created to emphasize Egypt's rich culture and heritage and show the many historical aspects of the Country. We started off by first finding the manufacturers for the clothing, partnering up with a printing factory, then creating photo-shoots whether in Egypt or Barcelona and hand delivering our merchandise to every client until we found a local delivery company to partner up with. Currently, I am more focused on creating and executing the designs of the merchandise along with managing orders as well as the social media account.
